Specialist PICU for Women

Svanna Ward,
Cygnet Hospital Beckton, London

Accepting referrals

Svanna Ward at Cygnet Hospital Beckton is a 12 bed PICU for women. The service accepts emergency and crisis admissions from all areas including acute wards and forensic services. Our aim is a short, rapid intervention to help individuals to regain a sense of control and order in their lives, so they can move to a less restrictive care setting and, ultimately, return home.

We provide expert, intensive, short-term, individualised care for people detained under the Mental Health Act. Service users will present with increased risks that require them to be assessed and treated in a PICU environment.
