About Supported Living

Supported living is an important step towards independence.

Being independent helps you make more choices about the life you want to live.

We will make sure you have what you want and need in your home.

Staff can help you with activities and help you to learn new skills.

How we support you

We will talk to you to find out what you like to do.

We will work with you to achieve your goals and dreams.

We help you build your skills and confidence.

We can remind you to take your medicines.

We can help you live in a healthy way.

We can help you to go clothes shopping and keep your clothes looking nice.
